Rodders Writes

Hi All,

It's that time of year again where the bike's are dusted off, washed, and polished to a high shine.

As you will have already seen from the calendar of events we're going to be really busy this year, I hope to make just about everything and hope many of you will also. We got off to a great start on the 17th April (see later) so let's try and keep it going.

If you have any pics, stories, jokes, anything at all please send them to Andy and Neil, we need to get the Web Site and Newsletters full.

That's enough from me, hope to see you all sometime this year

Quiddenham Cheque Presentation

Woke up to a bright sunny morning which makes a nice change this year, I could feel it was going to be a good day. Left home and met up with Brian and the two of us rode to Thetford to meet the others who were going to Quiddenham. Thought we would be the first to arrive but there was already 5 or 6 there, some really early birds in C10. As the minutes ticked by, more and more pulled in until we had 22 bikes and 29 people there, a fantastic turnout. We had arranged to meet Claire from the Hospice at 11.00 and duly arrived a couple of minutes early. The children were at a car boot sale so we got the formalities of giving the Cheque, doing all the photos, and really important stuff like playing with the sensory toys out of the way first. When they did arrive one of the boys Danny was really excited, he'd been waiting all day to see the bikes and drove his wheelchair between them all, somebody asked him what he thought of the blue one and he said "perfect". No need to ask whose bike that was!

Left Quiddenham and rode a short distance to East Harling where we were booked in to visit England's only whiskey distillery. After coffee and a short introductory video we were shown around, they only make about 150,000 bottles a year so everything is in the same room. Considering they start with about 7500 litres of mash they only get about 550 litres of spirit out, had a tasting afterwards and I still hate the stuff!!

Afterwards we felt it was time for some refreshments so some of us rode off to the nearest pub, food was great although I don't think it was cooked in order, I ordered mine last and got it well before Andy/Rosann/Dave/Mary/Gary/Linda.

I was wrong with my feeling when I got up, it wasn't a good day it was a GREAT day made all the better by being with a great bunch of friends, so to all of you I say Thank You Very Much.

We are just back from another trip to sunny Florida which also tied in a couple of visits to Daytona for bike week. As you can imagine there were plenty of bikes to be seen and even a BLUE old Raider, for someone who had taste and didn't fancy a Harley! There was one bike painted in amazing biblical scenes for the born again Christians, but I managed to move on before the owner pressed a free bible into my heathen hands.

Perhaps my favourite bikes were the two that overtook us with the half naked babes on the back! (Please note that C10 non members will NOT be riding pillon this season dressed only in a thong - Mary)

We ran out of time so didn't get around to seeing everything but did manage to fit in a quick visit to the Iron Horse saloon, where you could ride your bike up to the bar and watch the bands playing.

It was a great trip and would have been even better if we had dumped the car and been able to ride down the Main Street on bikes. Still, perhaps next time.

Church Bulletins

Thank God for church ladies with typewriters.

These sentences (with all the Bloopers) actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced in church services.

The Fasting and Prayer conference includes meals.

The sermon this morning; 'Jesus walks on the water'
The sermon tonight; 'Searching for Jesus'

Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale, it's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.

Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our community. Smile at someone who is hard of love. Say 'Hell' to someone who doesn't care much about you.

Don't let worry kill you off - let the Church help.

Miss Charlene Mason sang 'I will not pass this way again,' giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.

Next Thursday will be tryouts for the choir; they need all the help they can get.

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24th in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

A bean supper will be held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Music will follow.

At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be 'What is Hell?' Come early and listen to our choir practice.

Eight new choir robes are currently needed due to the addition of several new members and to the deterioration of some of the older ones.

The scouts are saving aluminium cans, bottles and other items to be recycled. Proceeds will be used to cripple children.

Please place your donation in the envelope along with the deceased person you want remembered.

The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility.

Pot luck supper Sunday 5:30pm - prayer and medication to follow

The ladies of the church have cast off clothing of every kind; they may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.

This evening at 7PM there will be a hymn singing in the park across from the church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

Ladies bible study will be held Thursday morning at 10AM. All ladies are invited to lunch in the Fellowship Hall after the B.S. is done.

The vicar would appreciate it if the ladies of the congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the bacon and egg breakfast next Sunday.
